JUST AIN'T NO NEED FOR ADVERTISING PROGRAM!

Publishing a newspaper is lots of fun, even hough the task has its problems. One of those problems is selling advertising—but therein lies a story. Frankly, we are not high pressure in selling this necessary commodity for our paper. We believe in it-sure, but we are not very argumentive. Maybe not as contentious as we should be about its merits and advantages.

But, just for argument's sake here are some slants that contend for our point:

Preachers should preach only one sermon or so a year; it doesn't take constant "advertising" to root out sin.

The traffic ilght at Lake Drive and Central Avenue should be turned off to save electricity; everyone knows that's a dangerous corner and there will be no accidents. No need for "constant advertising" to influence people to stop and watch.

Highway police can stop driving up and down the highways. Everybody knows the law and knows there are police. No need to continually remind drivers by "advertising" the fact through patrolling.

Teacehrs do not need to constantly review lessons. Tell the children once and they never forget.

All out-of-town firms that advertise in the daily press, the weekly press, radio and television are just giving their money away and fast going broke; mail order firms that send outc atalogs are also wasting money. Everyone in the Hamlin area knows what is sold in Abilene and closer towns and cities, and that advertising (what a joke) doesn't influence them a bit—they all shop at home!

But, if you are one of the foolish kindlike Notre Dame Cathedral that has stood for six centuries but still rings the bell each lieve in continuous, profitable advertising, then advertise in the one outstanding local day to let people know it is there-and bemedium . . . The Hamlin Herald.

What About Your Fruits?

"By their fruits ye shall know them" . . have you ever thought that this applies to you? That you will be known by the results, the fruits, of your acts?

In your private life, your public life, your club life, your religious life, the things that you do, the acts you perform, will set the tone of the knowledge of your fellow men will have about you. If you live up to the tenets of your religion, your club, your social strata, you will be judged accordingly. If you perform selfish, snide and sneaking acts, you will be known as one who is selfish, snide and sneaking. But, if you are honest, square and charitable in your dealings with your fellow men, you will be known as an honest, square and charitable citizen.

Of course, for a long, long time you may act with all of the indecencies of your deepest selfishness without your unsocial acts becoming generally known. It may appear, in this case, that man is not known by his fruits, but you will know about your fruits.

If your acts tend to create smiles in place of frowns, laughter instead of tears, flowers instead of weeds, beauty rather than ugliness, happiness in place of misery then, my friend, you may have smiles, laughter, flowers, beauty and happiness in your life-and men will know you by your fruits.

Others Before Self

Service is finding something to do and then doing it. We are all servants to a certain degree-we serve people who serve us and then we serve other people.

So the man who gets the most out of life Is the one who renders the most service to his fellow man and to the community in which he lives. The man who goes highest In this world is the man who pushes his fellow mon the highest!

How to Take Life

Take it just as though it was-as it is-an earnest, vital and important affair. Take it as though you were born to the task of performing a merry part in it—as though the world awaited your coming. Take it as though it was a great opportunity to do and achieve, to carry forward great and good schemes, to help and cheer a suffering, weary, perhaps heart-broken brother.

Now and then a man stands aside from the crowd, labors earnestly, steadfastly, confidently and straightway becomes famous for wisdom, intellect, skill, greatness of some sort. The world wonders, admires, idolizes, and it only illustrates what others may do if they take hold of life with a purpose. The miracle or the power that elevates the few is to be found in their industry, application and perseverance under the promptings of a brave, determined spirit.

Why They Were Fired

To learn what errors youngsters starting on their first job should be warned about, a group of vocational teachers wrote to several thousand employers asking them to look up the last three persons dismissed and tell why they had been let go.

The teachers had expected a long catalog of reasons. They were amazed that more than two-thirds of the persons losing jobs had been fired for one reason. It was the same in every sort of business for workers of all ages and both sexes.

It amounted to this: "They couldn't get

FARM PROBLEMS, OLD AND NEW

One of the mot persistent fallacies that seems to be in the minds of many people is that farm surpluses are something new. and that our farm price problem has developed only during the years that we have had a federal farm program.

These people are either too young to remember or too lazy to find out. It should be apparent to anyone that there never would have been a federal farm program in the first place if farmers hadn't been in a desperate

There is nothing political about the farm problem. The Republicans claim that farm prices were already on the way down when they took over in 1953. That is true. But when they say the farm price problem devel oped while the Democrats we e in power, they are conveniently forgetting what happened troubles. to taim people during the long lears they ran the government. It was the less of farms and the failure of rural banks in the twenties that had a vital part in the total collapse of our national economy in the early thirties. The situation for farm people was unfavorable in rne twenties and became so desperate in 1933 that there had to be a federal farm program

We had period's cotton surpluses prior to 1933. Anyone who was farming in 1914. 1920, 1926 or 1932 knows what surpluses did to cotton prices in those years. The only difference between now and then is that now farmers have some production. They don't lose everything they own when by the grace of God and good farming they make extra big crops. They are no longer penalized so heavily for producing abundantly. And that is the way it should be. Abundant production is a good thing for a nation, even though it is sometimes expensive. If you don't think so, take a good close look at Russia . . . or even Great Britain, where a good part of what the nation makes on world trade goes through Christ, Truth. - Mary out of the country to pay for the food and fiber its people must have.—The Progressive

Luther Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Walker of McCaulley. was on the honor roll for the fall semester at McMurry College, according to Jerome Vannoy, registrar of the Abilene school.

Vannoy said that the honor roll at McMurry is made up of the upper 10 per cent of all regular students.

Musical Program Featured at Lions Club Meet Tuesday

Vocal and instrumental music featured the program at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Piano pupils of Mrs. Henry Albritton were assisted by Linda Carlton, vocalist. Lana Claude Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lancaster, played Linda Schubert's "Serenade." Carlton sang "Suddenly There's a Valley" and "He." Cel Albritton played "Malaguania."

President Bill Seals announced that the Hamlin club had dropped from fourth place in December in District 2-E standings to thirtyninth place in January, based on attendance, activities and accomplishments. This standing, Seals said, is still fairly good in view of the more than 100 clubs in the district.

Besides the program participants, including Mrs. Albritton, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon were Bob Bellinger of Louisina and Brad Rowland.

JUST AIN'T NO NEED FOR ADVERTISING PROGRAM!

Publishing a newspaper is lots of fun, even though the task has its problems. One of those problems is selling advertising—but therein lies a story. Frankly, we are not high pressure in selling this necessary commodity for our paper. We believe in it-sure, but we are not very argumentive. Maybe not as contentious as we should be about its merits and advantages.

But, just for argument's sake here are some slants that contend for our point

Preachers should preach only one sermon or so a year; it doesn't take constant "advertising" to root out sin.

The traffic ilght at Lake Drive and Central Avenue should be turned off to save electritity; everyone knows that's a dangerous corner and there will be no accidents. No need for "constant advertising" to influence people to stop and watch.

Highway police can stop driving up and down the highways. Everybody knows the law and knows there are police. No need to continually remind drivers by "advertising" the fact through patrolling.

What About Your Fruits?

"By their fruits ye shall know them" . . have you ever thought that this applies to you? That you will be known by the results, the fruits, of your acts?

In your private life, your public life, your club life, your religious life, the things that you do, the acts you perform, will set the tone of the knowledge of your fellow men will have about you. If you live up to the tenets of your religion, your club, your social strata, you will be judged accordingly. If you perform selfish, snide and sneaking acts, you will be known as one who is selfish, snide and sneaking. But, if you are honest, square and charitable in your dealings with your fellow men, you will be known as an honest, square and charitable citizen.

Of course, for a long, long time you may act with all of the indecencies of your deepest selfishness without your unsocial acts becoming generally known. It may appear, in this case, that man is not known by his fruits, but you will know about your fruits.

If your acts tend to create smiles in place of frowns, laughter instead of tears, flowers instead of weeds, beauty rather than ugliness, happiness in place of misery_ then, my friend, you may have smiles, laughter, flowers, beauty and happiness in your life-and men will know you by your fruits.

Others Before Self

Service is finding something to do and then doing it. We are all servants to a certain degree—we serve people who serve us and then we serve other people.

So the man who gets the most out of life Is the one who renders the most service to his fellow man and to the community in which he lives. The man who goes highest In this world is the man who pushes his fellow man the highest!

How to Take Life

Take it just as though it was—as it is—an earnest, vital and important affair. Take it as though you were born to the task of performing a merry part in it—as though the world awaited your coming. Take it as though it was a great opportunity to do and achieve, to carry forward great and good schemes, to help and cheer a suffering, weary, perhaps heart-broken brother.

Now and then a man stands aside from the crowd, labors earnestly, steadfastly, confidently and straightway becomes famous for wisdom, intellect, skill, greatness of some sort. The world wonders, admires, idolizes, and it only illustrates what others may do if they take hold of life with a purpose. The miracle or the power that elevates the few is to be found in their industry, application and perseverance under the promptings of a brave, determined spirit.

Teacehrs do not need to constantly review never forget

All out-of-town firms that advertise in the daily press, the weekly press, radio and television are just giving their money away and fast going broke; mail order firms that send outc atalogs are also wasting money. Everyone in the Hamlin area knows what is sold in Abilene and closer towns and cities, and that advertising (what a joke) doesn't influence them a bit—they all shop at home!

like Notre Dame Cathedral that has stood for six centuries but still rings the bell each day to let people know it is there-and believe in continuous, profitable advertising, then advertise in the one outstanding local medium . . . The Hamlin Herald.

Why They Were Fired

To learn what errors youngsters starting on their first job should be warned about, a group of vocational teachers wrote to several thousand employers asking them to look up the last three persons dismissed and tell why they had been let go.

The teachers had expected a long catalog of reasons. They were amazed that more than two-thirds of the persons losing jobs had been fired for one reason. It was the same in every sort of business for workers of all ages and both sexes.

It amounted to this: "They couldn't ge along with other people."

Editorial of the Week

FARM PROBLEMS, OLD AND NEW

One of the mot persistent fallacies that seems to be in the minds of many people is that farm surpluses are something new . . and that our farm price problem has developed only during the years that we have had a federal farm program.

These people are either too young to remember or too lazy to find out. It should be apparent to anyone that there never would and knocked into the car ahead. have been a federal farm program in the first place if farmers hadn't been in a desperate siruation

There is nothing political about the farmproblem. The Republicans claim that farm prices were already on the way down when they took over in 1953. That is true. But when they say the farm price problem devel oped while the Democrats we e in power, they are conveniently forgetting what happened troubles. to taim people during the long lears they ran the government. It was the less of farms and the failure of rural banks in the twenties that had a vital part in the total collapse of our national economy in the early thirties. The situation for farm people was unfavorable in rne twenties and became so desperate in 1933 that there had to be a federal farm program up in another car.

We had periodic cotton surpluses prior to 1933. Anyone who was farming in 1914. 1920, 1926 or 1932 knows what surpluses did to cotton prices in those years. The only dif ference between now and then is that now farmers have some production. They don't lose everything they own when by the grace of God and good farming they make extra big crops. They are no longer penalized so heavily for producing abundantly. And that is the way it should be. Abundant production is a good thing for a nation, even though it is sometimes expensive. If you don't think so, take a good close look at Russia . . . or even Great Britain, where a good part of what the nation makes on world trade goes through Christ, Truth. - Mary out of the country to pay for the food and Baker Eddy fiber its people must have.—The Progressive Farmer Magazine.
